

The media ALREADY has a very high rate of concentration of ownership. Freedom of the press is a very basic right that Americans believe in. If you further deregulate ownership rules, there will be even less variety of opinion and even less access to the media for the average i.e. not wealthy person. Do your duty and protect the citizen's right to know and protect the country from the monopolization of media power and influence.